Most WV parents strongly agree:

"I want to do what's best for my children."

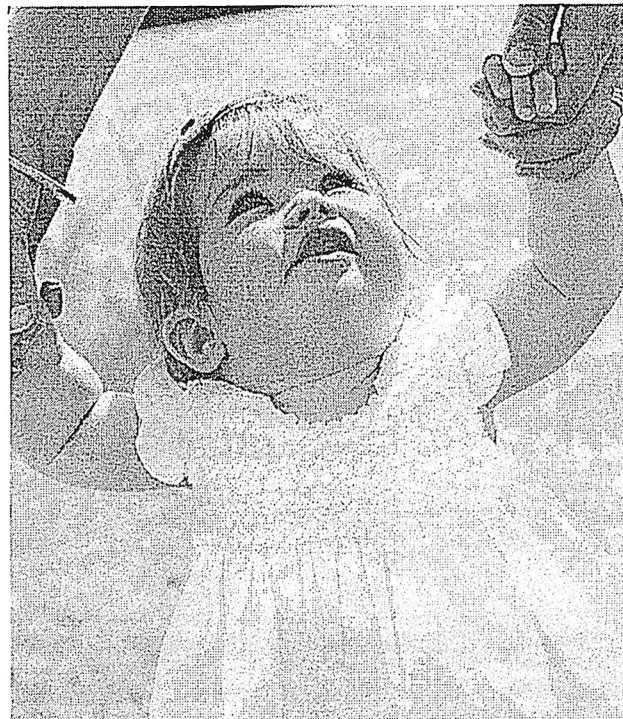

Supportive. Caring. Helpful.

99% of WV parents agree it's important for their children to

- be well cared for
- develop well both physically and mentally
- never experience child abuse or neglect

We are here with a listening ear and a shoulder to lean on to help you be the best parent you can be.

You are your child's first teacher

What do we want?

We want our children to grow and learn to realize their full potential. Parents are the most important people in a baby's life, but being a parent is not easy. All parents could use support and encouragement from time to time.

Now is the time to begin.

We want to

- meet with you during pregnancy
- support you as your child grows
- get to know you and your family

Children learn most quickly from birth to age three.

It's important to most WV parents that their child is prepared to succeed when it is time for them to start school.

9 out of 10 West Virginia parents agree they can benefit from learning new parenting ideas and skills.
